Copy of letter from the District Judge, Bellary No.2875, dated 25-10-1931.

I have the honour to forward herewith three applicatic from 1. Hussain Bi, widow of C.S.Mahomed Sultan Sahib, 2. Khajabi Bi, widow of Sahib Hussain Sahib and 3. Lakshmavva, widow of Pujari Venkayya, late process servers of the Dt.Munsifs' courts c Bellary and Hospet for the grant of compassionate gratuities under G.O.No.432 Fin., Pen.deptt., dated 9-5-1931. Although the grant of compassionate gratuities has been curtailed(G.O.No.Ms.686 dated 29-7-1931) these are pitiable cases as may be seen from the record of the enquiry herewith submitted.

1. Hussain Bi, widow of Mahomed Sultan Sahib has no property, moveable or immoveable. She is living in a rented house with her two children, a daughter aged 5 and a boy aged 1½ years. The record of enquiry shows that she has no provision either in the general provident or life assurance fund but has to discharge a debt of Rs 100/ contracted by her husband.

2. Khajabi Bi, widow of Sahib Hussain Sahib owns a house worth Rs 450 encumbered to the extent of Rs 200- and has debts amounting to Rs 440/. As in the case of No.1 this applicant also has no income or assets. She has a daughter and son aged 12 and 9 years respectively, of whom the latter is at school.

3. Lakshmavva widow of Pujari Venkayya, has a house and a wet land in Narayanadevarakeri village worth Rs 100 and there are no debts. The applicant has two brothers who are not in a position to maintain her and her six minor children. It also appears that she is now pregnant. Though the Dt.Munsif states that the work and conduct of the applicant's husband were not satisfactory and he was not inclined to recommend the application, I do not see why his dependants who are destitute should be penalised for his delinquencies, which after all were not very serious.

I strongly support the cases of the three applicants in question. Payments may be made at the Bellary Treasury in the cxxxxxf case of Nos.1 and 2 and at the Hospet sub treasury in the case of No.3

The record of enquiry made by the Rev.deptt. together with the service registers and punishment rolls of the deceased process servers are herewith submitted.

3. Hussain Bi widow of C.S.Md.Sultan Sahib has no moveables or immoveable property as far as my enquiry goes. She is living in a rented house paying a monthly rental of Rs 2 She has one minor daughter and one minor son. It is said that she has no income of any sort and does not inherit any through General Provident fund or Life Assuranc company The deceased has left Rs 100 to be paid as debts. She intends residing in Bellary and wants the payment to be made in the event of compassionate gratuity being sanctioned.

4. Full and separate record of enquiry is herewith submitted.

Tahsildar's endorsement No.N.Dis.C 2244-31 A

Resubmitted to the Collector of Bellary with the record of enquiry made by the Rev.Inspector Bellary on each point.

2. From the enquiry it is observed that the petitioners (1) Khajabi Bi and (2) Hussain Bi have neither moveable nor immoveable properties worth mentioning and that they have no other members of the family to be depended upon. These two are really fit cases for some financial help from Govt.

Most Honoured Sir,

(3 enclosures) I, Hussain Bi, widow of C.S.Md.Sultan Sahib late process server District Munsif's Court, Bellary most humbly begs to submit as follows:

My husband C.S.Md. Sultan Sahib died a week ago that is on the 29th ultimo unexpectedly leaving behind him his widow(myself), a gosha lady, and two children aged 5 years and 1½ years, minors, quite incapable of moving in the civilised world to look to their future living nor capable of realising the impending responsibility to protect themselves.

The deceased was a Process server in your honour's Court and had put in a service of nearly 13 years. His humble position, burdened with a large family around him to be maintained and supported, could not find means to save anything for his family to depend upon.

I have however been encouraged by the kind advice given to me that cases of such of the families of a deceased Govt. servant, who has sufficiently served in the Govt, and who have been left under others' mercy are being benevolently considered by the benign Govt, in the award of some remuneration. Hence I am put to the necessity, under the present circumstances to approach your honour as the widow of the deceased Process Server of your Honour's department with the request that my pitiable case may kindly be taken into consideration and recommended for the award of the remuneration intended for such of the families under the Government order.

For which act of kindness I shall ever be grateful.

I beg to remain,

Most honoured Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

Bellary
